YEARLINGS AT MONTREAL

INCREASING NUMBERS INDICATE GROWING INTEREST IN THE THOROUGHBRED THERE.

Several Newcomers in Racing Figure Among Owners of Quebec Youngsters—Capt. W. F. Presgrave Takes Some South to Winter and Train.

Montreal, Que., December 5.—Never in the history of thoroughbred racing in the province of Quebec has a better bred band of coming two-year-olds been sent into winter quarters than in Montreal this season. There are twenty-three in the lot and it is safe to say that there is not one of them but can boast of the blood of Derby winners in their veins, although in some cases it may be many generations back. Of the number C. S. Campbell, who has been most successful with two-year-olds in the past few years, has five, three of which are to remain in Canada and two of which will be developed in the south for early spring racing and will likely be wintered at the farm of Capt. W. F. Presgrave, at Salisbury, Maryland, along with one owned by A. E. Ogilvie.

In former years it was the custom of many of the breeders and owners to turn out their yearlings without breaking them. This custom all of these to be developed were broken and given usual work. Captain Presgrave being responsible for the breaking of eleven of them. This province has made rapid strides within the past three or four years in the breeding industry, and is fast coming to its own, so that in the near future Quebec will rank with Ontario on a breeding standpoint.

This was well proven last fall at the meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club by the starters in the King's Plate and the Provincial Nursery Stakes. Both brought out a better class than in former years and the quality will show marked improvement again next season.

The majority of the foals of 1911, which will become two-year-olds on the first day of January, have been named and registered, which makes them eligible to race at any time after that date. Many appropriate names have been chosen for them and there has been no objection by the New York Jockey Club, which is recognized as the registry office for all thoroughbreds. The three owned by A. E. Ogilvie are as fine a looking lot as could be well imagined. The pick of this trio is Dublin Girl, a chestnut filly by Dublin-Ballet Girl. This filly has shown speed even as a baby and will be kept for the Nursery Stakes next fall and the King's Plate of the following year.

Irish Harmony, another in this stable, was taken south by Captain Presgrave to develop for early racing. She will likely be started in the Coronation Stakes at Toronto next spring, bearing aces. The third one of this trio is Dublin Girl, a chestnut three-year-old Irish Rose, Corn Broom and Sinsin are the two of the five owned by C. S. Campbell that probably will be developed and fitted for early racing. Sir H. Montgomery Allan has a splendid colt in Irish King. This youngster is by Dublin, out of the well-known mare Reine de Saxe, and is a half-brother to King Saxe, which showed good form this fall in the races for province-bred horses. He might have done better, but through an accident lost one of his legs, which threw him out of training for a time. There are several by Rosemont and Seahorse II. The latter has, perhaps, the most unique history of any sire now in Canada. The good horse Rosemont is the sire of several. This crop of thoroughbreds will be responsible for the introduction into racing of many Montrealers who have never evinced such interest in the sport in previous years. The following are the coming two-year-olds already registered in New York:

Foals of 1911.
Bad Actor, br. c, by Rosemont—Stagecraft; C. L. Hervey.

Medium, ch. c, by Mesmerist—Nanue; Maj. A. H. Sims.
Montgomery, ch. c, by Masterman—Etta May; Thomas Stephens.
Pair de Rion, b. c, by Andover—Mome d'Amour; Kenneth T. Davies.
Rose Blackburn, ch. f, by Rosemont—Jessamine Blackburn; C. L. Hervey.
Sage, br. or b. f, by St. Savin—Called Back; C. S. Campbell.
Sandy, b. c, by McGee—Gargle; C. S. Campbell.
Sinsin, ch. f, by St. Savin—Innate; C. S. Campbell.
Sirey-Mid, ch. f, by Seahorse II.—Eva Maddison; Charlesville Stable.
Stoneycroft Belle, ch. f, by Rosemont—Mariposa; A. Scott Ives.
The Monte Gun, b. f, by Masterman—Gunshot; S. H. Montebell.

With few exceptions, the yearlings included in the above list are by Canadian Breeding Bureau stallions and on that account, local interest in their development is keen.

FEATURES OF RECENT RACING IN ENGLAND

London, Eng., November 18.—With the Warwick and Manchester and other meetings to furnish the entertainment, the flat racing season of this year in England will come to an end at Manchester next Saturday. It has been a good racing year with a goodly array of sensations of its own, not the least being the capture of the Two Thousand and the St. Leger by the American-bred and owned colts Sweeper II. and Travery, respectively. Naturally, the racing of late has not been up to the standard of the more important succession of first class meetings which came to an end with the Newmarket Houghton meeting, but for all that it has not been without its interesting features and surprises. For instance, at Newbury last Friday Lance Chest was confidently expected to win the Ormonde Stakes at a mile and was a well-supported favorite at 7 to 4, while Castleton was expected to furnish the most dangerous opposition and accordingly was second choice at 3 to 1. It chanced that among the eight starters was a chequerboard of colors, the Duke of Portland's money finishing third with the two favorites beaten off. It was the last race of the year of considerable value for three-year-olds exclusively. Antravida had all the allowances, being a maiden, and only carried 107 pounds, while Lance Chest had 125 and 126 and Castleton 121 each. Some good people who thought this race a certainty for Lance Chest suffered through their misplaced confidence. In fact, the Newbury meeting was rather a disastrous affair for backers. The other principal event of the meeting, the Newbury Autumn Handicap, at a mile and a half, had Lavoti and Rivoli for its favorites, but fell to the 10 to 1 outsider Lady Elton, of which much had been expected in several previous races without favorable results.

By far the most important event of the week was the decision of the Derby Cup, of a mile and six furlongs at Derby last Thursday. This race was the last of the season and was contested by sixteen fair class handicap horses including the American-bred Election, Dalmatian and Columbus. In an open betting market Papaver, Lorenzo and Shanballymore were the favorites but neither was placed, the winner turning up in the Flying Leucis mare Aye Aye, which won by neck from Washington, with Marcellio third and Election a close fourth. Flying Leucis, sire of the winner, is a brother to the famous horse Flying Fox and may prove a successful sire in time.

Antravida, which made such a highly successful first appearance on a race course, is the first of the produce of his dam, Renunciation, that has run. She had two foals previously, but her filly of 1907 was a disappointment and the following season was destroyed. Renunciation is a St. Frusquin mare, dam of White Vell, by Manchester—Novillate, by Hermit. Novillate was the dam of Marco.

Joseph Hyams, who has trained with considerable success in Austria, saddled the winner at Derby Wednesday of the Elvaston Cup, the filly, which was recently commenced to train at Epsom for Douglas Stuart, and this was his first success on the English turf. The winner, Miss Douglas, originally named Erling Bragh, is an American filly by Peter Pan—Maid of Erin, and was purchased out of Joyce's stable for $2,000. It took $2,800 to retain her, and as she scored in runaway fashion from the Amuletta filly and the Lalla filly, Hyams has evidently got her into very smart trim.

The death of the Newmarket General Hospital on October 26, of S. H. Purcell, Purcell had contracted pneumonia and his case was hopeless from the first. He went to that country twenty-two years ago and at different times won all the principal races in England. He was a jockey, a trainer, a breeder, and a horse owner. During his career as a jockey Purcell won nine Epsom Handicaps, and on one occasion he won a double, the Johannesburg Handicap and the Goldfield Handicap, on succeeding days on the horse Malgo. He was forty-two years of age.

Jessie, the winner of the New Biennial Stakes at Ascot this year, has been retired from racing and put to the stud. She has been recently purchased by Lady James Douglas at a substantial price, and will probably be mated with Rock Sand next year.

The three-year-old, Maritza, by William the Third, out of Marcarina, ran her last race in the Allerton Handicap at Epsom on December 1, when she was beaten by the American-bred colt, Sweeper II. She was a successful stnd. She won the Dee Stakes at Chester this year, but was not successful in her first season. The Cesarewitch winner, Warlingham, was in striking distance at the end of the race, but when he received a bump right and left, which not only put him out of court, but nearly knocked his jockey out of the saddle. He was badly struck into and out about.

By reason of recent success at Liverpool, Derry and a minor meeting or two Lord Derby has passed Messrs. Raphael and Hulton and now appears to be securely lodged in second place in this year's list of owners who have stable earnings of $15,000 or more. It has been a long and interesting contest for second place and only decided within the last ten days. New arrivals in the list are W. Wootton and G. A. Prentice and two owners who have increased their stable accounts are E. Hulton, S. Joel, L. de Rothschild, J. Buchanan, A. F. Bassett, H. M. Hartigan, R. Mills, W. H. Walker, Lord Londale, Lord Durham and D. McCalmont. With but a week more of racing to be dispatched before the flat racing season of 1912 comes to a close, the list of lucky owners referred to is now as follows:

Owner.	Winning Horses.	Races Won.	Amount Won.
W. H. Walker.	11	7	$ 23,490
Lord Londale.	11	13	19,135
Lord Durham.	6	17	22,225
Sir E. Schill.	5	12	18,019
L. Clow.	3	7	17,340
L. Brassby.	3	7	17,332
D. McCalmont.	5	6	17,052
L. Winans.	2	4	17,630
F. D. Piele.	3	6	17,005
H. E. Redington.	1	3	16,800
Lord Falkland.	4	4	16,245
G. Edwards.	14	24	15,245
H. Wootton.	12	18	16,710
G. A. Prentice.	5	10	16,442

Since the list of horses which have won $12,500 or more was last published, not one of them has started in a race, for the sufficient reason that without an exception these stars of the racing of 1912 have been sent into winter quarters to rest until the campaign of 1913 begins at Lincoln next March. Quite probably the decision of the Manchester November Handicap next week will bring out more horses into the list, which now remains as follows:

The beginning of the last week of our flat racing season is right at hand, and this is the final appearance of the records of the principal winning stallions in the same form that has applied ever since the Summer Meeting at Epsom, when Tagale won the Derby to place Cyllene at the head of the poll. The next batch of figures will be those for the whole campaign, Prince Palestine enabled Persimmon to dispose Cyllene from the leadership some weeks ago, but the latter is slowly but surely creeping up again, and it is more than probable that he will have won his third championship by the hour the curtain falls at Manchester. Only a little more than $2,000 divides Persimmon and Cyllene now, and there are still undoubted possibilities about both Desmond and St. Frusquin. The statistics have required considerable alteration lately, but, curiously enough, the respective placings are only affected slightly. Thrush and Earla Mor have improved their positions in the race, but otherwise the order of merit remains as before. The stallions with progeny that collectively have won $25,000 or more are the following:

LAYERS HAVE A BAD DAY

WELL BACKED HORSES SCORE AT LUCRATIVE ODDS IN JUAREZ RACES.

Shorty Northcut, Dan Norton and Beda Make Up Trio on Which Bookmakers at Mexican Course Lose Heavily.

El Paso, Tex., December 5.—While favorites did not fare especially well at the Juarez track today, the layers reported a disastrous experience, as the winners included three good priced horses that were heavily supported by their backers. These included Dan Norton, Shorty Northcut and Beda. Shorty Northcut, which has been racing well on the Oklahoma and Texas circuit, made good in making his initial appearance here. He was capably ridden by jockey B. Steele.

Truly the beaten favorite of the first race encountered bad racing luck, being on the rail and getting out off early in the running. Her chance of winning was destroyed before they had gone an eighth of a mile.

A party of twenty or more distinguished gentlemen and capitalists from the east, several of whom are financially interested as stockholders in the new Paso del Norte Hotel, were guests of Col. M. J. Winn at the track today. They were escorted across the border by Gen. J. Z. Steever of the United States Army and Mayor Kelly of El Paso. Colonel Winn named the six races comprising today's card in honor of their visit. Among them were Charles L. Stone, Lloyd P. Wells, J. D. Perry, A. L. Sharp-leigh, Thomas W. Bennett and Phil C. Scanlon of Buffalo. Accompanying the above was Norman E. Mack, chairman of the New York delegation. He was sent to San Francisco to select the site for the New York building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

Jack Atkins, owner of the Burbank Stable, has engaged jockey Dave Nicol to ride his horses during the Juarez meeting.

Henry McDaniel, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, was unable to get out today.

Harry Wendt, a prominent block man, is one of the late arrivals from Norfolk.

P. C. Nash, a well-known business man of Vancouver, B. C., who has recently purchased a few horses, has come here for the winter.

Ed. Shelton of Spokane and one of the principal stockholders in the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association, was a visitor at the course today. He expects to remain indefinitely.

Alf Scheffel arrived from Norfolk in advance of bookmaker Henry Hauff, who is expected in a few days.

W. E. Semper of Butte, Mont., a bookmaker, is here and soon expects to operate in the ring.

Charles Reed and Jack MacDonald arrived from Jamestown this morning. Their horses, Old Coin, Joe Deloid and Insurance Man are in the car with Early Wright's Arance and Manasseh. They are expected to arrive early tomorrow morning.

E. C. Burtis and his string arrived today from Oklahoma. In the lot were L. M. Eckert, Minnette.

BIG HORSE SHIPMENT REACHES CHARLESTON.
Over 300 Horses Arrive at Palmetto Park from Norfolk and Kentucky.

Charleston, S. C., December 5.—The arrival of three horse trains today added considerable excitement to Charleston. Two of the trains came from Norfolk and the other from Kentucky. They all carried Pullman Sleepers and day coaches for the owners, trainers and help. The entire shipment comprised 328 horses.

Over 200 men came on the train from Norfolk with the horses of W. T. Anderson, J. W. Hedrick, A. G. Blakely, N. B. Davis, J. M. Cooper, H. McCarron, Tennessee Stable, H. G. Bedwell, George J. Day, Douglas Carter, J. L. Hinton, W. A. Burtis-schell, A. Malone and J. O. Talbot.

In the Kentucky shipment were the horses of C. D. Chenuit, Lee Christy, James S. Everman, W. O. Joseph, D. Miller, O. Hink, J. M. Hodge, G. W. J. Bissell, J. W. May, W. F. Schulte and Theo Abadie.

All the horsemen were delighted with the condition of the track. The backstretch has been widened and the turns torn up and graded. Without exception, they agreed that it would be one of the fastest and safest tracks in the country.

NOTES OF THE TURF.
George North is among the recent arrivals at Juarez.

The Norfolk shipment to Charleston will be made up of 270 horses.

The Belgian trainer, J. de Neuter, saddled 156 winners this year.

W. F. Schulte is again to serve as presiding judge at Charleston, and James Milton will do the starting.

Omataasa died at Juarez a few days ago from the effects of cold contracted in shipment to the Mexican course.

The price paid for Bronzino, recently sent from England to Australia, is said to be $62,400, making him the highest priced sire ever imported to that country.

Charles Kohler's Novelty won the Prix du Laur-gaais, run at Engleien, in France, Tuesday. Six other horses competed. Jockey V. Powers rode the American winner.

R. E. Watkins' horses are quartered for the winter in the stable at Sheephead Bay formerly occupied by Louis V. Bell. Max Hirsch, who has War Horn, Taloo, Big Dipper and Jonull in his string, will winter his horses in the old Joyner stable on the Neck Road at the Bay.

Word comes from Lima, Peru, that jockey Eng-lender, who used to ride in this country, has estab-lished a steam laundry at Lima and is doing a good business. It is the only steam laundry in the South American city and proved such a winner that he has also established a suspender factory.

FRANK O'NEILL NOW WELL-TO-DO.
New York, December 5.—Frankie O'Neill, the American jockey who rides in France for William K. Vanderbilt, arrived here yesterday with his wife and two children on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie to spend the holidays with his relatives in St. Louis.

O'Neill is going back on January 4 to get into con-dition again for the next riding season, which starts on the French tracks on March 11. O'Neill said Mr. Vanderbilt had had a successful season on the French turf.

In Mr. Vanderbilt's stables are about sixty-five horses. Trainer Duke is still with the Vanderbilt string and is not coming back here this winter. O'Neill rode 570 or 580 races, of which he won 135. He finished second 50 times, and he did not bother to keep account of them. O'Neill has earned nearly $600,000 since he has been in France.

It could reasonably have been expected that either F. Wootton or Maher, or both of them, would put more on to their winning scores during the past week than has turned out to be the case. The American horseman only shows an increase of two,
and Wootton of four, though the latter's advantage,
now standing at eight, is sufficient, accidents excepted, to make certain his standing at the head of the list when that racing comes to a close for the year at Manchester. But while the two leaders have made no long steps forward, Whalley's stride has been still shorter, and he still requires four points to bring him to his hundredth win. This he may conceivably reach, though it appears likely to be a near thing, judging by the past week's experience. Clark has improved a total that can scarcely come to ninety at the finish, but he is a long way in advance of those immediately following him, of whom Wheatley has done best recently. The riding record now stands as follows:

TRAINING THE PIPING ROCK YEARLINGS.

New York, December 5.—Of the fifty subscription thoroughbred yearlings to be raced during next year's spring and autumn meetings of the Piping Rock Racing Association at Locust Valley, L. I., twenty-five are in charge of trainer William H.
Mildred at the Belmont Park track. The others in the big collection which was recently distributed are wintering at various private racing quarters on Long Island.

Of the band of youngsters handled by Mr. Mildred the majority are fillies. Sixteen of the twenty-five are of the feminine sex, six are colts, and three are geldings.

Conditions for breaking and training yearlings are ideal at Belmont Park, and it is reasonable to expect that at least twenty of the lot now handled by Mildred will remain in his hands until the opening of the racing season.

The yearlings housed in the Mildred barn include
the following:

Chestnut colt, by Russell—S. G. P.; Paul D.

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY'S STABLE.

New York, December 5.—Mrs. Payne Whitney is wintering seven horses at Belmont Park in the included barn No. 18, which faces the Hempstead road.
Of this collection four are two-year-olds, foaled at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud in Kentucky. The three older horses are Web Carter, Whinnie and Boisterous.
James Owens, for many years a leading steeplechase rider in this country, England, Ireland, France and Belgium, is handling Mrs. Whitney's horses.
The two-year-olds are a particularly good type for cross-country racing. Mrs. Whitney some time ago decided to "make" her steeplechasers when they were two-year-olds. For this reason trainer Owens gave the juvenile jumpers a long, slow preparation, commencing with five weeks' tuition in a corral.
The aptness shown by the youngsters was amazing
and in the early autumn they were ridden by experienced steeplechase jockeys on several fences on the schooling grounds and showed up promisingly.
The names, breeding and color of the quartette that will carry the pink and black silks of the Green Tree Stable—the nom de course of Mrs. Whitney—follow:

Ballet, b. f. 2, by Ben Brush—Coppelia, by Kling-ston.
Delicious, ch. f. 2, by Delbi—Rapture, by Onondaga.
Summery, b. g. 2, by Voter—Sumida, by the Sailor Prince.
True Heart, b. g. 2, by Disguise—Fealty, by St.
Frusquin.

Delicious is a rapid going filly and while she fairly flies at her fences is not a "chancy" jumper.
She is the speediest of the lot. Ballet moves in the steady-going manner of a Bramble. Her sire, Ben Brush, was one of the most famous sons of that noted sire, and he has transmitted his frictionless stride to this filly.

True Heart and Summery have the size, substance and bone of perfect carriers, and their action and clean, fast jumping are indicative of high-class performances under colors.

Whinnie, the five-year-old brown son of Bitter Root —Attainment, went into winter quarters in excellent condition. Whinnie's winning races this year were in the Between the Flags Cup at Belmont Park Terminal; the Challenge Cup at the Country Club meeting, Brookline, Mass., and the Dosoris Plate at the meeting of the Piping Rock Association.
Web Carter, which despite a light barrel and general lack of stoniness, carries weight remarkably well, is now eight years old. The bay son of Monteau and Amphora ran his best race this season when at Belmont Park he won the Robert R. Harrington Challenge Cup, defeating Charles Pizer's great steeplechaser, Heronold, a head in a thrilling finish. Web Carter carried 163 pounds, conceding four pounds to Heronold. Web Carter's other winning race was over the course of the Millbrook Hunt Association.

Boisterous, the three-year-old chestnut daughter of Hamburg—Hurly Hurly, thus a sister to the celebrated race horse and sire, Burgomaster, was raced on the flat during the season just closed. She has been put through her paces on the schooling grounds and her racing in future will be confined to jumping. The snap and vim displayed by Boisterous in her initial flat led her exercise to be remarkable. "Say, she sure is a bird in the air," Charles L. Appleton will ride in the events exclusively for gentlemen riders, while the professional jockeys, Tommy O'Brien and Otto Helder, will do the "bookings" in other races.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

A. C., Oklahoma City, Okla. The percentage of winning favorites at the Juarez meeting of 1911-12 was .28. No favorite won a race there on the four days, December 5, December 24, January 13 and March 6.
C. V., Covington, Ky. Maskette is a brown mare foaled in 1906, by Disguise—Bitterle. She was bred by and until recently was the property of James R. Keene, but has been sold by him to W. K.
Vanderbilt and is now on her way to France.

FLAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA LAW.

Clerical Error Said to Have Been Made in Anti-Racing Measure Passed by Last Legislature.

The Charleston News and Courier, in referring to the meeting of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, scheduled to open at Palmetto Park January 25, makes the following comment:

"It has been reported with considerable confidence for some months past that a race man generally would be held in this city this winter, in spite of the fact that those who actively opposed the races succeeded in their efforts to have a law against race track gambling passed by the Legislature at its last session. The situation as it now exists is an interesting one. Race track gambling has been declared illegal, but a race meeting is to be held. Under the law as it is generally understood it will be impossible for the race meeting to be conducted as race meetings are usually conducted, that is to say, with bookmakers queuing in connection with the Association and with betting on the races as an important part of the sport.

Officials of the Association had nothing to say yesterday on publication and no authoritative statement of their view of the legal status of affairs could be obtained for print. It is generally understood, however, that as soon as the Legislature convenes, on January 10, the racing interests will make an effort to have the race limit wrenched by the antirace track gambling law extended. This limit was fixed by the law passed at the last session as July 1, 1912. It is reported that the racing interests will endeavor to have the time extended until May 1, 1913. If this is done it is the plan of the racing promoters, according to common report, to make an effort to secure the enactment of a new law, similar to that in effect in Kentucky, which will provide for the creation of a racing commission. It is stated that the law as it now stands on the statute books will have to be changed in any event, since a clerical error caused the law to be entered on the books without any of the amendments which were incorporated in it by the Legislature, so that, according to this contention, the law as it now stands on the books is not the law that was really passed.

"Ophidians differ as to whether or not another race meeting here will be of benefit to the city; and while, so far as is known, no definite move has yet been made in that direction, it is generally understood that opposition will be offered the enterprise.
Whatever the outcome, so far as the legal questions involved are concerned, the fact remains that plans for the race meeting scheduled to begin here on January 25 are being carried on in the perfect confidence, apparently, on the part of the racing promoters and the racing men that the meeting will be held. The offices of the association on Meeting street are open. Many horses are already here and many others are to arrive this week. The close of the racing season at Jamestown and at the Kentucky tracks turns the eyes of hundreds of racing devotees towards Charleston and before long the influx of strangers will begin."

COVERS TURF TOPICS THOROUGHLY.

A limited number of the 1912 edition of the American Racing Manual remain available for distribution. The 1912 Manual is unquestionably a better book than any of its predecessors, having been enriched by the addition of new features, while at the same time all the old features are retained.
This publication, which is annually in great demand
among those interested in the turf, is an excellent and low-priced book of 450 pages, holding information obtainable in no other publication. It is simply a mine of records. Among its features are:

BEIDA, differently ridden today and showing sudden improvement, went to the front at once and, showing great speed, easily won the way. SIR ALVESCOT began slowly and had to come around on the outside, but closed a gap in the last drive and made a fast finish. PARLOR BOY was a forward contender all the way, but was tiring in the final strides. GOLD OF OPHIR made a fast stretch effort. LACKROSE ran into the lead quickly and, winning all the way, raced FEATHER DUSTER into the stretch and had to be shaken up to withstand CROSSOVER's challenge. CROSSOVER was hard ridden and ran gamely, but tired in the stretch drive. YMIER was close up in the early running, but tired and dropped out of contention in the last half. SLY LAD ran poorly. Winner—Bk. g. by Lithos—Engenia S. (trained by D. W. Kelly). Went to post at 4:30. At post 1 minute. Start good and fast. Won easily; second and third driving. ROSE ONEIL ran in closest pursuit throughout and challenged gamely on the turn for home, but lost ground in the stretch racing. BAILEY ran close up to the leaders nearly throughout and finished gamely. GRIETHEEN G. was closing up fast through the final eighth. ROSEVALE ran poorly and can do no better.
